

MAY

Contents

AT THE FRONT

- 020 Contributors Some of the fine folk who made this issue.
- 023 Ed's letter A word from our editor in chief Tyler Brülé.
- 024 - 025 The Opener A snapshot of global news – and our views.
- 027 - 030 Observations Owl decoys, a risk-busting global tracking service and how water buffalo could save New Jersey's dairy industry.
- 032 - 033 My Cabinet Michael Chan Chi Pui of Hong Kong's elite Government Flying Service on his high-performance team.
- 034 Cosy Corner Orlando Rock, chairman of Christie's UK, on his country retreat crammed with beautiful objects.

AFFAIRS

- 039 - 044 Jacinda Ardern REPORT: New Zealand's prime minister talks leading on the world stage, the fate of left-wing parties and why she won't let her country become a billionaires' playground.
- 047 - 051 New Caledonia REPORT: An independence referendum nears for the French territory; how will the Pacific archipelago vote?
- 052 - 055 Zimbabwe REPORT: Can a new leader achieve real reform and restore Harare's international relations?
- 057 Politics BRIEFING: The unlikely rise of Rob Ford's brother in Ontario and female representation in the Lebanese parliament.
- 058 Diplomacy BRIEFING: Promoting the Spanish tongue, Finnish education models and the Nobel Peace prize winner whose women's movement helped end Liberia's civil war.
- 060 Defence BRIEFING: Historical narratives in Poland, fighter-jet revenue in Sweden and the US marines branch into radio.
- 063 Cities BRIEFING: Busan's industrial waterfront gets a makeover and Portland looks to integrate nature.
- 064 - 065 The Netherlands STATE OF THE NATION: It's been named the world's sixth-happiest country, so what's there to smile about?

BUSINESS

- 067 - 072 Duolingo REPORT: How the start-up and its owl mascot are getting people hooked on language-learning.
- 074 - 075 Jette Egelund 10 STEPS TO SUCCESS: The owner of Danish brand Vipp on making a pedal-bin business into a global brand.
- 076 - 079 Bordallo Pinheiro REPORT: How the Portuguese ceramics firm went from the brink of closure to international brand.
- 082 - 083 Alexandre Arnault HOW I MANAGE: The CEO of top-flight luggage brand Rimowa on getting the best from his team.
- 085 Business BRIEFING: Food styling and cork smartphones.
- 087 - 089 Best practice PROPERTY: Low-rise Singapore, a Tokyo printing factory and a development without developers in Melbourne.
- 091 - 092 Mipim PROPERTY: Urban futures at the Cannes property fair.
- 094 - 095 Regenerating a district PROPERTY: Breathing new life into Amsterdam's Marineterrein.
- 097 - 098 Projects to watch PROPERTY: Including a restored power station in Warsaw and former textile mills in Hong Kong.
- 100 Residential PROPERTY: Reza Merchant, founder of The Collective, talks co-living and tackling loneliness.

New Caledonia — AFFAIRS, page 047.

Bordallo Pinheiro — BUSINESS, page 076.

ISSUE 113 COVER

PHOTOGRAPHER: David Sykes
 STYLIST: Kyoko Tamoto
 MODEL: Louis Harnett
 O'Meara

JACKET by The Gigi,
 SHIRT by Salvatore Piccolo,
 TROUSERS by Incotex,
 TRAINERS by Church's,
 WATCH by Tudor, SUITCASES
 by Rimowa

C

CULTURE

- 103 – 105 Art Q&A: Es Devlin on the art of designing sets for megastars.
- 106 – 109 Photography REPORT: Reinventing large format and a footloose London gallery bringing art photography to new spaces.
- 111 – 113 Kamasi Washington REPORT: The Los Angeles-born jazz saxophonist explores race relations through music.

D

DESIGN

- 117 – 129 Top 50 REPORT: Key interior-design innovations for 2018.
- 133 – 135 Oki Sato BIG INTERVIEW: The head of Tokyo's Nendo studio has designed everything from shopping centres to beer cans.
- 136 – 137 Frida Escobedo BIG INTERVIEW: The architect set to inject Mexican flair into London's Serpentine Pavilion this year.
- 138 – 139 Roberto Gavazzi BIG INTERVIEW: The CEO of Italian kitchen-maker Boffi on refined design and enlightening the consumer.
- 142 – 143 Lighting REPORT: Reviving business for Midgard, the lamp manufacturer that illuminated the Bauhaus in the 1930s.
- 147 – 149 São Paulo REPORT: How a modernist department store became a flexible community building that's revitalising the city.
- 151 – 159 Belgrade REPORT: The Palace of Serbia is both a reminder of the region's political past and a mid-century marvel.
- 162 – 165 Brisbane RESIDENCE: An architect's project that's a temple to concrete, timber and nature. His clients? His parents.
- 167 – 182 Ed Killingsworth EXPO: Rediscovering how the Californian architect's 1960s work shaped the ambience of Long Beach.
- 185 – 189 Shopping MERCHANDISE: Browse our new range of homeware.

E

ENTERTAINING

- 191 – 197 F&B entrepreneurs REPORT: Three firms born of having a dream and finding the right recipe.
- 198 – 199 Food and drink BRIEFING: Rare champagne in a snug space in Riga and a recipe for baked feta with honey and dill dressing.
- 200 – 201 Adam Gopnik MY LAST MEAL: The esteemed New Yorker essayist on the practical joy of chopping onions.

F

FASHION

- 203 – 205 Provenance REPORT: Meet the creatures whose fur, hair and silk contribute to sartorial designs around the world.
- 206 – 209 Pauw REPORT: We drop in on Madeleine and Christiaan Pauw, the mother-and-son team behind the Dutch fashion retailer.
- 210 – 211 Fashion BRIEFING: An Armani fashion-and-furniture flagship, monogrammed French sandals and national style stereotypes.
- 212 – 221 Spring FASHION: Time to refresh wardrobes for warmer weather.

i

INVENTORY

- 223 – 229 Openings REPORT: A timeless classic in Yokohama and a new hotel in Sydney's Surry Hills topped with a copper crown.
- 230 – 231 Travel & hotels BRIEFING: From a Porto hideaway to an architectural revival in Hong Kong.
- 232 – 233 Marseille CITY GUIDE: Tradition and modernism collide.
- 234 – 235 Shop, Read, Listen BRIEFING: Venetian menswear and candles for the modern man, plus a little Le Marais in Singapore.
- 236 – 237 Best in Class REPORT: Porto fashion retailer EarlyMade.
- 238 Stockists DIRECTORY: Eat regional Austrian in Graz, sleep at Houston's Hotel Icon and find coffee spots in Vancouver.

Es Devlin — CULTURE, page 103.

Ed Killingsworth — EXPO, page 167.

F&B entrepreneurs — ENTERTAINING, page 191.

Openings — INVENTORY, page 223.

Pauw — FASHION, page 206.